- ¹ Take Marine until about 21st then make my way up to the highway for the final bit.
- ² Give yourself a good about an hour of li lienency. Trust me I have missed many ferries.
- ³ Sleep = good. The sun deck is always a good place to crash
- ⁴ I had to ride this segment like a time trial, so I could barely make all my connections.
- ⁵ Talk about timing, I had to wait a total of 10 minutes before we sailed.
- ⁶ Denman is surprisingly hilly. There is one 13% grade you have to climb to get across the island
- ⁷ I made the last sailing to Hornby
